Pomeroy Names New Head of European Professional Services Practice

Stuart Juggins, CCIE, Assumes Newly Created Role

HEBRON, Ky., July 8, 2011 – Pomeroy, a global leader in optimizing the IT infrastructure, has appointed Stuart Juggins, CCIE, to the role of Director of Professional Services for Pomeroy Europe. Juggins will lead the company's Professional Services practice in Europe and provide strategic direction to Pomeroy Europe's growth efforts in the areas of professional services and advanced infrastructure solutions. He will report to Paul Yeomans, Managing Director of Pomeroy Europe and will be based in the company's headquarters in Buckinghamshire, England.

Juggins brings over 15 years experience in the technology services field, most recently at ADAPT, a UK-based provider of hosting, managed services and cloud computing, where he led the design of the cloud infrastructure and delivered a fully managed network and hosting solution for a global power brokerage provider. He is also a founder and principal of Networks Incorporated, a training and specialist consultancy located in Bedfordshire, UK, where he served such clients as HP, BT, BSKyB and P&G, and grew the Cisco training and consulting practice by 30+%. Prior experience includes senior level networking management positions for the EMEA market at Pivotal Corporation, Getronics and EDS.

"Pomeroy is at a pivotal point in the development of our Professional Services presence in western Europe," said Chris Froman, President and CEO of Pomeroy. "Stuart's proven ability to not only build deep client relationships, but to lead top-performing consulting teams will be a valuable asset. We are very pleased to have him join our team in Europe."

"We are very pleased to welcome Stuart Juggins as a key member of our leadership team," said Paul Yeomans, Managing Director of Pomeroy Europe. "Stuart's depth of experience, industry knowledge and his many certifications in the field of networking add strength to our growing Professional Services practice. I am confident that, under Stuart's leadership, the practice will continue to grow in size and importance."

"As companies are required to make increasingly complex IT infrastructure decisions, there is great potential for our Professional Services team to play a key role," said Juggins. "I am thrilled to be joining a world class team of professionals to help drive Pomeroy Europe to its next stage of growth."
